

Call for Papers

The THREAT 2020 summit, 8 – 9 October 2020 in Johannesburg, calls for papers of the following types:

- Research Articles: Submissions (max. 8,000 words) that present research findings from, inter alia, empirical data collection, doctrinal analysis data collection, and/or conceptual exploration;
- Review Articles: Submissions (max. 6,000 words) that provide, inter alia, a systematic review, a thematic review, a critical topical review, or a critical literature review;
- Critical Interventions: Submissions (max. 4,000 words) that provide reasoned comment and argument on relevant topics; and
- Publication Reviews: Submissions (max. 4,000 words) that provide reviews of, inter alia, books, journal articles, reports, research reports, research papers.
- Industry Case Studies: Submissions (max. 4,000 words) that provide a practitioner view of cybersecurity issues within the workplace

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Important dates:

Deadline for submission of papers : 31 July 2020

Notification of acceptance: 15 August 2020

Deadline for submission of final paper: 31 August 2020

Please submit all full papers to:

<https://easychair.org/my/conference?conf=threat2020#>

Referencing in all papers must follow the APA Style.

PUBLICATION OPPORTUNITY

Selected Research and Review articles presented at the Summit will be reviewed by the Journal, post the Summit, for consideration for publication in a Thematic Issue of The African Journal of Information and Communication \(AJIC\), Volume 21. See AJIC Call for Submissions. Please note that the journal review process is independent of the Summit, and the organisers of the Summit will not be involved in the review or publication process.

All categories of paper types, accepted for presentation, will be eligible for publication in the THREAT Conference proceedings: Title: THREAT 2020, ISBN: 978-0-620-87057-3